RECOMMENDED TEXTS

Meridian Style Acupuncture, by John Pirog

Reading assignments for those desiring more background come from Pirog. Tests will be drawn from the lectures based upon the Daoist perspective of Jeffrey Yuen. His is an oral tradition with no written or published sources in English that I am aware of.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS

The 3 tests will be equally weighted.

Attendance, class participation, and extra credit projects can supplement your test scores. If you take clear typed class notes, you may elect to hand them in for extra credit. Also a 3 to 5 page typed paper on any subject presented in class, or using analytic tools learned from class, may also be submitted for extra credit by Week 11.

Reading assignments come from recommended text. Tests will come from the lectures and accompanying handouts. Note that the weekly lesson plans are estimates. Some topics may take longer to cover than their allotted time. The order of presentation of information may also vary from the syllabus. Some topics may be omitted if time runs short.

GRADING SCALE: 100-90% A, 89-80% B, 79-70% C, 69% and below F

SPECIAL NOTES

Professionalism and Full and Prompt Attendance: To pass any course (separate from academic performance) all students must meet requirements for professionalism in coursework. Professionalism includes full and prompt attendance: Students who miss more than 2 class meetings in a 10-week course will earn an F in that course. Additionally, students who arrive more than 15 minutes to class or leave class before it ends will be marked tardy. Two tardies equal one absence. NOTE: Students who leave and return to class late from a break or leave during the class (especially if this is repeated) or who disrupt the class in other ways may be referred to the Academic Dean for professionalism.
